Scholarships

Chinese American Schools –Alameda has numerous needs-based and merit based scholarships for which student can apply. Each scholarship has its own separate requirements and criteria, so please check each one carefully when inquiring:

Directors Scholarship: a renewable scholarship awarded to students who show exceptional academic promise and leadership ability.

Tsern Family Foundation Scholarship: made available to highly-qualified students with demonstrated financial need.

Promise Scholarship: freshmen students graduating in the top 5% of their class qualify. Amount awarded each year is dependent on the strength of the applicant pool and number of qualified candidates.

Opportunity Scholarship: for students who have overcome great hardship and difficulty to achieve personal and academic distinction.

Global Citizen Scholarship: awarded to students who can demonstrate great moral and ethical character and community mindedness in serving others.

The school can also provide information about scholarships available through local private organizations. Check with the school office for more information.
